Altera Corporation is accelerating the technology advances changing our world. Altera’s unique intellectual property and silicon can be found at critical junctions in the Internet, the hearts of cloud data centers, inside ultra-high-definition TV studios, and in the brains of autonomous cars and industrial robots. If you are ready to challenge yourself at the leading edge, we would like to meet you.
“Our employees drive our success. We look for the brightest minds and provide them with intellectually stimulating work and the ability to grow in an innovative environment where their skills are respected and their achievements rewarded.”

– John P. Daane, President, Chief Executive Officer, and Chairman of the Board
INTEGRITY

We seek intelligent people of substance who thrive on challenge, always do the right thing, and desire to work side-by-side with others who possess the same values.
We are early adopters working on the leading edge of the most exciting technologies. Repeatedly named among the world’s 100 most innovative companies, we’re open to ideas — your ideas. We take calculated risks on exciting projects. No matter what level you enter our ranks, you will find ample room to grow.
RESPECT

Your hard work is recognized, both as an individual and member of a cohesive team. We push you to develop your talents and abilities to the utmost, but also understand your need for a healthy work/life balance. Enjoy the beauty of our campus, our state-of-the-art buildings, and our subsidized cafeteria — and then still have time after work and on weekends to spend quality hours with your friends and family.

“Work and life are finally different words.”
"Technology cannot keep up with us."

BUILT TO LAST

We have been in business more than 30 years, and have always stayed ahead of the technology curve, steadily growing revenues while remaining highly profitable. We compete in diverse markets and are continually looking for new opportunities — and for focused, fiercely intelligent employees who recognize our potential as a company and can take us to the next level. Careers are built here.
"The customers' needs are our challenges."

PROOF, NOT PROMISES

You can trust us — but we don’t ask you to. We provide proof, not promises, of our products, our technology, and our company. We’ve been named a Best Financially Managed Company, and we stand behind our reputation for employment excellence. Visit altera.com/careers for more information.
